Lynda McCann, director of Lifespring Ministry, notes, “We at Lifespring are looking forward to another Walk a Mile in My Shoes this February! The Walk not only provides financial help for our every day operating expenses, it is terrific exposure to others of how Lifespring and Urban Youth are helping families right in their community. This event is drawing church groups, schools and businesses together for a common cause, all this and having fun while you walk – how do you top that?”

Lifespring Ministry:

Lifespring Ministry is a residential program for the woman in crisis, and her children.

Lifespring Ministry's 12-month residential program restores hope and rebuilds lives, woman by woman. The Lifespring program supports each woman through her crisis. She and her children are nurtured at Lifespring Center, a safe, loving "family" environment. Caring mentors help each woman effect positive changes in her life to benefit herself and her children. Each woman is encouraged to face her problems, plan for her future, and work toward self-sufficiency.

Urban Youth Ministry:

Wayside is building a stronger Kingdom by starting at the foundation-the children. The Urban Youth Ministry (UYM) has programs for at-risk kids to help them stay on the right track.

Urban Youth Ministry programs and initiatives help kids to grow physically, mentally and spiritually. The after-school Kids Clubs, academic tutoring, sports programs and day camps nurture hundreds of kids in the Aurora area throughout the year.

Urban Youth Ministry programs:

- provide positive alternatives to street gangs and drug use
- teach Christian moral values through adult mentorship
- encourage positive relationships between peers
- promote tolerance for diversity
- build and strengthen a youth's relationship with Jesus Christ

UYM programs include: Sports, R.E.A.D. "The Homework Club," and Kids Club.
